

Head of ICT

The John Roan School, Maze Hill, Blackheath, London SE3 7UD.

Full time and required from April/September 2010 MPS + TLR 2C. We wish to recruit a dynamic and enthusiastic teacher to lead the further development of ICT across the school. ICT is core at KS3 and an option at GCSE and A level; exam results at KS4 are outstanding; the ICT resources are substantial. This is an important post in the school and candidates should have a good degree in ICT, computing, or a related area and an up-to-date and high level of competence in ICT. In addition, experience of managing a team of teaching staff and technicians, and the communication and people skills to work effectively with all departments in the school are required.

The successful applicant will also have the exciting opportunity to achieve the ambitious vision for development of ICT outlined in our BSF Strategy. We anticipate the new premises will open in 2013 on our existing sites.

Established in 1677, The John Roan School is an oversubscribed 11-18 mixed comprehensive school that has recently had a successful Ofsted; pleasantly situated on the edge of Greenwich Park and with excellent transport links to central London.
